Darden Frier Baria

It is hard to believe that this would be our son and brother's senior year, and still difficult to comprehend that he is not here with us to experience it. It has now been seven years since Darden's passing, but his memory is still very fresh in the hearts and minds of his family and friends. We continue to be touched by Darden's friends and members of this community who remember and commemorate him.

It is bittersweet for our family to watch all of the great events here at Bay High that Darden has missed: a state championship in boys soccer (Darden's favorite sport) and boys basketball, a historic football season, both of his sisters serving on the homecoming court, among many others. We are very proud of your accomplishments and know that Darden would have been proud to have been a participant in some of these events.

Darden would have celebrated his 18th birthday December 20, 2012 and would be graduating from Bay High School with this year's graduating class. We don't know what his future would have held, but we know that he really would have appreciated being a part of the graduation this year. Even though Darden wasn't here for a very long time, his classmates made a lasting impression on him and it is apparent that he also made an impression on them too.

One thing we have come to know from this experience is that love transcends death and Darden's love for his friends and theirs for him keeps him alive for all of us. Our family is greatly honored that Darden made such an impact on these young men and women and we deeply appreciate the decision by Bay High's Class of 2013 to provide a chair for Darden at the 2013 Graduation ceremonies.

Thank you,
the Baria Family.

"Love is how you stay alive, even after you are gone."

-Mitch Albom

Darden, it feels like only yesterday that you were still here. You were the sweetest, funniest, most handsome boy I'd ever met. You always had a smile on your face and I'll never be able to forget it. I miss you like crazy! I remember that day at recess when I fell off of the monkey bars crying and you were the only one who came up to me to make sure that I was okay. Thank you so much for everything. I wish I would have had more time with you, but can't wait to see you again. :) Love always.

-Taylor Miller

You are what someone calls a great friend, not just a good one. I am so blessed to have had one just like you, and I know you are still watching over me. Darden, there are so many good memories with you that come close to my heart and have touched so many people. I'm so lucky to have gotten to be so close to such an amazing person! You are one of the people that lit up the world and you will continue to shine at graduation and many more events to come, I love you Darden. XOXOXO

-Maddie Lewis

Darden was more than my bestfriend, he was like a brother to me. We did everything together. Even though I had only known him for a little over a year, I felt like I had known him my whole life. I miss him very much and would give anything to talk to him one last time

-Trevor Strong

Darden and I were very close. We played soccer together for many years. His house was the first I ever stayed the night at. He has made a huge impact on my life in many ways. I love him just as much now as I did then, and that will never change! Rest in peace my friend!

-Michael Stringer

It feels like yesterday that we were getting into arguments in Mrs. Chamberlain's class. I miss you so much, more than words can describe! I know you're watching over us, and you'll be sitting with us at graduation.

Having been born in the 90's, we will remember the childhood memories: Barney, Cabbage Patch Kids, Power Rangers, and Disney at its peak. We grew up and maintained traditions, as well as created new ones to pass on to the underclassmen hoping they will keep the legends going. The C/O 2013 will be remembered and missed forevermore!

~ Mrs. Elisabeth Bosarge, Inclusion

"The Class of 2013 will forever remain etched in my memory as a crew that not only showed great promise in academics, athletics, and the arts, but also as a group who had a lot of fun while doing so! Though some of us started together four years ago in a history class at the trailers, while others of us during the last semester of high school in senior English, the journey has been grand as you have also taught me each and every day. For some of you (Ms. Grisham and Mr. Hoda), four of your eight high school semesters seem to have included a schedule with my name on it. (Your counselors must love you, btw.) Although I know I will miss you dearly as your presence within the walls of Bay High is no longer a regular occurrence, know that at the same time I will find delight as you go out into the world and prepare to make it better than how you found it. Godspeed to each and every one of you as you set out to achieve all your goals."

~ Mr. Jeremy Grubbs, English

"The class of 2013 and I will always have a special bond. My first year of teaching was their first year of high school. We have grown together throughout these four years and I have learned so much from each and every one of you. I look forward to seeing all that you accomplish in the years to come. Congratulations Class of 2013! Y'all are awesome!"

~ Mrs. GiGi Lewis, Science

"Take care of your health. Without it, nothing else matters."

What's your favorite thing to get at Waffle House?

Drew LeGros says, "I like to get the All-Star meal."

What's the best parking spot at Bay High?

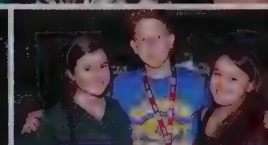

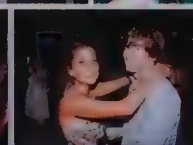

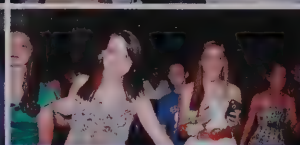

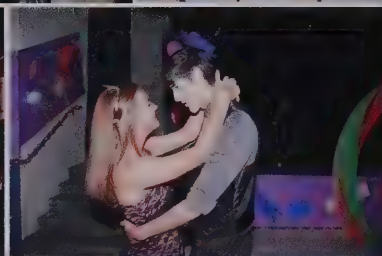

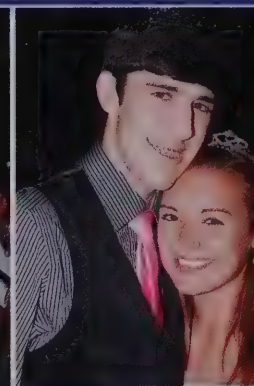

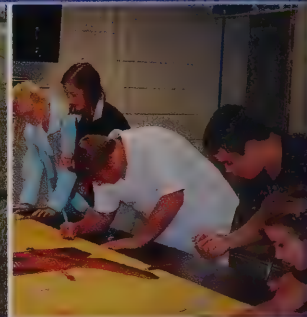

Kyle Meehan says, "my parking spot 91 is the best."

What's the best way to miss school?

Raema Fricke says, "I missed the bus, or faked being sick."

This year Bay High was saddened by the tragic loss of fellow tiger, Billy Rester. Billy will forever be remembered by those he encountered at BHS, especially the Class of 2014. May a light continue to shine on his memory as we cherish the life of a fellow friend and student and see those boots walking a long, awaited hall.

Because Bay High students (and teachers, as noted above by Mrs. Schruft) are naturals at the art of dancing, we thought it to be only fitting to add a few more shots from the Homecoming Dance onto our pages. As the "Groovers" say, "We may not win every game, but we've never lost a party." Here are the shots to prove it.

2013 Senior Basketball

This year's seniors did everything they needed to get the job done. I've saw a great change in Caleb Ladner and Taylor McColister as we went into the playoffs. These two young men played fiercely! They gave it their all and carried the team in the first round. Being that this was Kendrell Perkins' first year back with the Tigers since middle school, he's improved tremendously, becoming one of our starting post. He can handle the ball just as good as a point guard and he shot three pointers like he was a shooting guard. He was also our #2 big man under the goal, with a lot of blocks. Our #1 post man is a very talented and special young man. I've watched and coached Justus Williams since middle school and in every game he finds a way to surprise me. He's only 5'11" but plays like he's a 6'3 player. We will never come by another like Justus, and we wish him well in college. Antwine James wasn't able to play with us this year due to a football injury, but we enjoyed his support. I wish these young men the best of luck in the next steps of their lives, and I will miss them being a part of our Tiger family here at Bay High.

Making Our Colors Shine

Clean Our Scene

This summer Cassie Doucette, Brad Herrington, Devin Jackson, Austin Lavoie, Victoria McCaa, Mitch McCaleb, Jeremy Medina, Chris Phillips, Jesse Rowell, Colby Spiers, and Jordan Switzer helped to landscape the grounds of the school. Interact members also help "Cleanup the Coast."

Mix It Up

Lunch time at Bay High took on an anti-bullying theme this year. Instead of dining with their friends, club members, or classmates, students sat with people they don't normally hang out with at school. Students wore different color shirts to school instead of school uniforms and sat with students who were wearing the same shirt color. This national event, sponsored by the Southern Poverty Law Center and the Future Educators Association of Bay High gained regional media attention due to its success in breaking down barriers that are most often seen in the school cafeteria.

Training a New Litter of Tigers

BHS Cheerleaders host a cheer camp for community youth.

Pink Heart Fund

The fund, based in Long Beach, provides free wigs for children and adults who have lost their hair due to illness or cancer treatment. Bay High dared its students and faculty to donate their own hair for the creation of wigs for cancer patients who cannot afford them.

Mentoring

Exceptional students from Bay High go to Waveland Elementary to act as positive influences in elementary students' lives. The "older kids" play games and read to the little kids. They also help the kids with their homework. Bretta Hart says that she loves mentoring and it makes her feel that she is helping the community. Donovan Davis says that he likes mentoring the younger kids because it makes him feel good.

Mentors: Nathan Lambeth, Maddie Lewis, Jaron Ritter, Jackson Clearman, Michael Stringer, Skyler Cabaniss, Shannon Buehler, Latoya Williams, Bretta Hart, Justin Hoda, Cody White, Hunter Felder, Gage LaFontaine, Bella Gonzalez, Hunter Adam, Tynisha Johnson, Shelby Patterson, Madison Hansell, Klara Kersanac, and Katie Broadhead

Now I look back and I have to smile, cause boy it was fun bein' seventeen, wishin' I was twenty one...

I should have believed them when they said the next 4 years would fly. You think 4 years would be long, until you wake up and realize that you're a senior, you're half way through the year book, only have one more prom, then graduation. I'm not really sure if I should scream because were almost done, or cry because of the same reason.
I will walk out the same doors I walked into four years ago.

Building a Team of Exceptional People...

Senior Note 13

Class of 2013,

We made it! We've always looked forward to the day when we would FINALLY graduate and walk across the field to receive our diplomas. Now that it is actually happening, it's bittersweet to think that after 13 years of school together we are all going our separate ways. We hope to keep each other close and never forget the amazing memories we created while attending this extraordinary school. We will no longer have to wake up and rush out the door to make it to school on time. Now that it is over, we know why our parents told us to take it slow and make every moment memorable! Now that we will not see each other every day, as we are pursuing our dreams and the different paths we will take, the memories will be treasured as we work diligently toward our goals. Even though we could not have known how much we would treasure these times at Bay High School, we now realize that these halls will remain in our hearts forever.

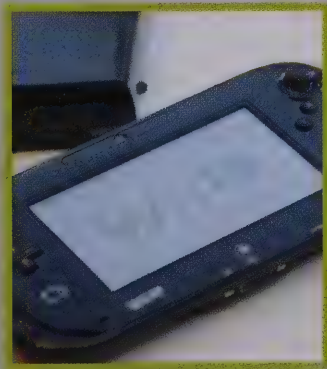

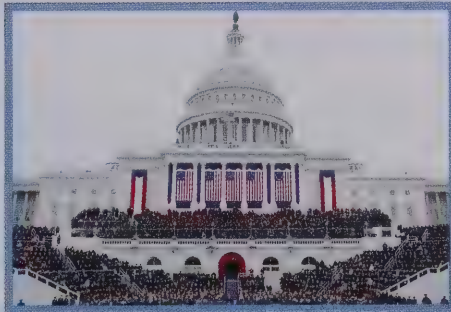

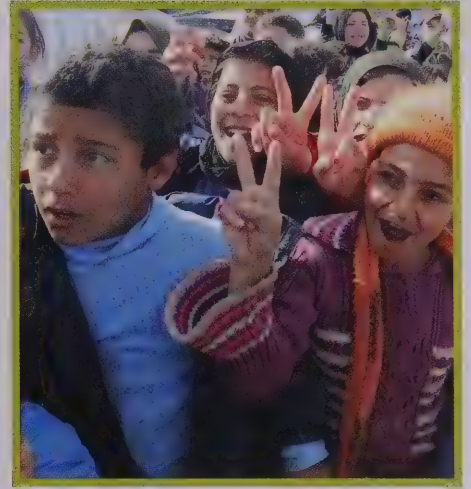

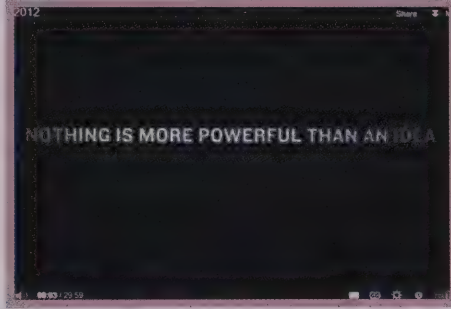

Love Always,
Anita Lynn Grisham
